MASILC Adds Find A Center to Website

Center for Independent Living, Inc.

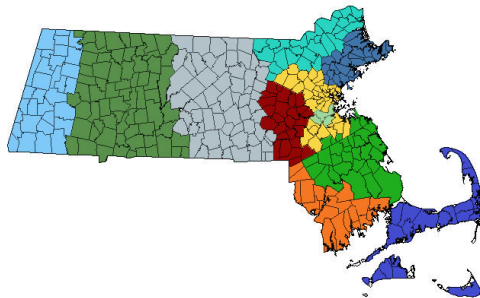

Greetings!

Massachusetts Statewide Independent Living Council recently added a helpful page: "Find a Center" to their website. The page has an alphabetized list of every single city and town (over 350) in Massachusetts. To find the MA Independent Living Center which services a particular town, simply click on the town. You will be brought to a page with basic information about the center. If you need more, click on the center's website link.

Thanks to Rose Quinn for the idea! Anyone who has searched the various centers on-line, trying to find a specific town while a caller waits on the phone, will appreciate this easy new feature on the MASILC website.

Visit the MASILC website, and click on the Find A Center button on the right.
