IL Conference a Success

September 20,
2012

MetroWest

Center for Independent Living, Inc.

Dear ,

After missing a couple of years, the 2012 IL Conference was a great success, with Independent Living colleagues renewing friendships, sharing best practices, and learning about the future of IL. Photos from the day are now online on our website at www.mwcil.org/gal/

The most exciting news from the Conference is that MetroWest Center for Independent Living won the first place trophy in the IL Follies. MWCIL staff performed with MASILC Coordinator Jim Clark who played a young Paul Spooner. We brought the house down and the trophy home. Make sure you see our first place trophy the next time you visit the Center.

2nd Place was awarded to Independence Associates for their very funny skit on (not) finding housing. Some of the IA staff are pictured below.
