

Boston Metro Accessibility Contest Deadline Extended!

The contest deadline has been changed to Monday, June 10. If you haven't yet had a chance to sign up, we're repeating the registration and rules below. Good luck!

AbleRoad, DLC of Massachusetts, MetroWest CIL and Boston Center for Independent Living are pleased to announce the:

Boston Metro Accessibility Contest!

The goal of the contest is to use the FREE AbleRoad app and AbleRoad.com site to create ratings and reviews of accessible restaurants, shops, medical offices, hospitals, sporting venues, groceries and other facilities in Boston and its surrounding communities. Contestants must create ratings and reviews based on mobility, hearing, sight and cognitive criteria. This information will help people with disabilities as well as their families and caregivers. Entrants will be judged on who submits the most ratings and reviews based on actual visits. All Residents of Massachusetts can participate, and there is no cost to sign up or download the app.

The contest lasts from April 22 - June 10, 2013. Winners will be announced in June. Visit AbleRoad.com/Boston starting April 22 to see the full contest rules and to register for the contest. Contestants must post at least 50 reviews and ratings during the contest period.
