MWCIL VIDEO Released!

After much work, a brand new video about MetroWest Center for Independent Living has been completed. You can watch it on our website at www.mwcil.org. The video describes the center, what we do, and why our work is so important.

You've heard the phrase "it takes a village"? Well, a "village" participated in this endeavor! First, we'd like to thank the MetroWest Regional Transit Authority for funding the work, and the Davideo Company for making the video. And finally, we thank the many people who added their voices to the message: MWCIL Staff, Consumers, and even State Senator Karen Spilka! Each person had a different perspective and we greatly appreciate their willingness to share their views.

Happy Holidays!
